FOOTBALL STINGERS LOSE; HOST OTTAWA

The Concordia University Football Stingers failed to hold a 14-0 first quarter lead on Saturday afternoon at Molson Stadium and the McGill Redmen came storming back to win 22-18 and capture the Shaughnessy Cup. The game, which was postponed from Friday because of the bad weather, was a hard-hitting affair filled with turnovers in which neither team could mount a solid scoring drive. However, the Redmen managed to capitalize on two Concordia fumbles for two second half majors that turned a 15-5 Stinger lead into a McGill victory. Concordia touchdowns were scored by Jacques Plourde and Ed Shirley.

With the win, the Redmen evened their O.Q.I.F.C. record to 1-1, while the Stingers fell to 0-2.

McGill now hits the road for four games while the Stingers open a baseball-like three game home stand this Saturday afternoon (Oct. 5) at 1 P.M. against the Ottawa Gee Gees. The Stingers beat Ottawa 17-9 in a pre-season earlier this year. In fact Ottawa has not won an O.Q.I.F.C. game in three years after extending their winless streak to 21 games with a 34-13 loss to Queens' Saturday in Kingston.

SOCCER STINGERS WIN, TIE

The Concordia Men's Soccer Team ran its QUAA record to 2-0-1 this weekend by defeating UQTR 4-2 at home on Sunday afternoon after sloshing through the mud and rain to tie McGill 1-1 at Loyola on Friday. The Stingers next game is Sunday, October 6 at Loyola against the University of Sherbrooke.
